

FOLK IN THE ROAD

FOLK IN THE ROAD is a New Age Folk Rock Band from Melbourne, Australia they are known distributors of fine original musical elixir. Featuring four veteran musicians; ERIK ADAMS on lead guitar and violin, BOB CRAIN on co-lead vocals and rhythm guitars, LOU OPIE co-lead vocals and hand percussion and SIMON RODGERS on bass guitar.

FOLK IN THE ROAD is anything but traditional, the music is original Folk Rock, “Folk” in that the songs are stories, socially conscious, environmentally friendly, meaningful and clear and “Rock”, from our musical roots, is the delivery vehicle. Whilst the music harks back to the halcyon days of Folk Rock in the late '60s and early '70s the themes, stories, and messages are “new age” contemporary and connect with audiences young and old, they are relevant to life as it is today.

From the light-hearted to the hard hitting there is a message in the music and it is delivered in a style that romps and entertains while at the same time connecting and asking the listener to examine the world around and see what they think and whether they are in-tune with it.

Co-lead vocalist, rhythm guitarist Bob Crain has released three solo CD's including a LIVE recording from the Folk Barn in the US. Lead Guitar and Violinist Erik Adams is a classically trained violinist and has applied that training to the six-stringer he has everything covered from Blues to Ballads. Co-lead vocalist Lou Opie has two solo CD's on her resume she covers all the bases vocally and plays a mean tambourine. Bass guitarist Simon Rodgers has played and toured with several bands over the years and is equally adept at both electric and acoustic bass.

The entire band writes both individually and collaboratively and participates in the arranging process. Every original song is infused with Folk In The Road's diverse range of experience, skills and influences that produces a uniqueness to their music.

FOLK IN THE ROAD is available for headline or support gigs and festivals in Melbourne, regional Victoria and throughout Australia on application.
